

I am strongly opposed to any further weakening of broadcast regulations, for both television AND radio. In fact, I favor a rollback of deregulation in broadcast television and a return to vigorous enforcement of public service standards. The broadcast networks make use of the public's airwaves, and should offer a real benefit to the public for the rather lucrative privilege. Thank you for your consideration of my opinion.